

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Version 1.3

The purpose of the Voluntary Product Accessibility Template, or VPAT™, is to assist Federal contracting officials and other buyers in making preliminary assessments regarding the availability of commercial “Electronic and Information Technology” products and services with features that support accessibility. It is assumed and recommended that offerers will provide additional contact information to facilitate more detailed inquiries.

The first table of the Template provides a summary view of the Section 508 Standards. The subsequent tables provide more detailed views of each subsection. There are three columns in each table. Column one of the Summary Table describes the subsections of subparts B and C of the Standards. The second column describes the supporting features of the product or refers you to the corresponding detailed table, e.g., “equivalent facilitation.” The third column contains any additional remarks and explanations regarding the product. In the subsequent tables, the first column contains the lettered paragraphs of the subsections. The second column describes the supporting features of the product with regard to that paragraph. The third column contains any additional remarks and explanations regarding the product.

Section 1194.21 Software Applications and Operating Systems – Detail

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(a) When software is designed to run on a system that has a keyboard, product functions shall be executable from a keyboard where the function itself or the result of performing a function can be discerned textually.	All functions can be accessed through the keyboard. Exception, Reference Center and Product Registration.
(b) Applications shall not disrupt or disable activated features of other products that are identified as accessibility features, where those features are developed and documented according to industry standards. Applications also shall not disrupt or disable activated features of any operating system that are identified as accessibility features where the application programming interface for those accessibility features has been documented by the manufacturer of the operating system and is available to the product developer.	Applications will not disrupt or otherwise disable any accessibility feature of another product.
© A well-defined on-screen indication of the current focus shall be provided that moves among interactive interface elements as the input focus changes. The focus shall be programmatically exposed so that Assistive Technology can track focus and focus changes.	Active dialog elements are highlighted with a prominent focus indicator that moves as the input focus changes. Exception, Reference Center and Product Registration.
(d) Sufficient information about a user interface element including the identity, operation and state of the element shall be available to Assistive Technology. When an image represents a program element, the information conveyed by the image must also be available in text.	User interface element is exposed to ensure assistive technology program(s) can accurately receive and convey information regarding element identity, operation and state.	The toolbars allow you to show the image and text along with a tool tip. All other menus are text based.
(e) When bitmap images are used to identify controls, status indicators, or other programmatic elements, the meaning assigned to those images shall be consistent throughout an application's performance.	Follows Windows Operating System standards.

Section 1194.21 Software Applications and Operating Systems – Detail

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(f) Textual information shall be provided through operating system functions for displaying text. The minimum information that shall be made available is text content, text input caret location, and text attributes.	Textual information is provided through operating system functions for displaying text.
(g) Applications shall not override user selected contrast and color selections and other individual display attributes.	Supports Operating System settings.
(h) When animation is displayed, the information shall be displayable in at least one non-animated presentation mode at the option of the user.	Supports animation and non-animated presentation modes.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 (Presentations) allows you to view the presentation in PDF or Flash. (Non-animated and animated)
(I) Color coding shall not be used as the only means of conveying information, indicating an action, prompting a response, or distinguishing a visual element.	Some color-coding exists within applications.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 will use color coding in some instances (ex hyperlinks). An alternative mechanism (ex. mouseover detail display) will be provided for detecting them. However, Reveal Codes tags allow the user to view any formatting applied within the document. The user can double click the tags from within the Reveal Codes area to allow the user to determine which formatting options are on and what RGB value the color used has.
(j) When a product permits a user to adjust color and contrast settings, a variety of color selections capable of producing a range of contrast levels shall be provided.	Supported by the Operating System.
(k) Software shall not use flashing or blinking text, objects, or other elements having a flash or blink frequency greater than 2 Hz and lower than 55 Hz.	Applications do not use flashing or blinking text.
(l) When electronic forms are used, the form shall allow people using Assistive Technology to access the information, field elements, and functionality required for completion and submission of the form, including all directions and cues.	Applications do not output/create electronic forms.

Section 1194.22 Web-based Internet information and applications – Detail

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(a) A text equivalent for every non-text element shall be provided (e.g., via "alt", "longdesc", or in element content).	All functions can be accessed through the keyboard.
(b) Equivalent alternatives for any multimedia presentation shall be synchronized with the presentation.	All functions can be accessed through the keyboard.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 also gives you the ability to draw using the keyboard with Presentations Graphics X6.
© Web pages shall be designed so that all information conveyed with color is also available without color, for example from context or markup.	All web pages can be designed to convey information with or without color.
(d) Documents shall be organized so they are readable without requiring an associated style sheet.	Documents are readable without requiring an associated style sheet.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 does not require a style sheet.
(e) Redundant text links shall be provided for each active region of a server-side image map.	N/A	N/A
(f) Client-side image maps shall be provided instead of server-side image maps except where the regions cannot be defined with an available geometric shape.	N/A	N/A
(g) Row and column headers shall be identified for data tables.	Row and column headers are identified for data tables.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 identifies row and column headers for data tables while merging documents.
(h) Markup shall be used to associate data cells and header cells for data tables that have two or more logical levels of row or column headers.	N/A	N/A
(I) Frames shall be titled with text that facilitates frame identification and navigation	N/A	N/A
(j) Pages shall be designed to avoid causing the screen to flicker with a frequency greater than 2 Hz and lower than 55 Hz.	Applications do not cause the screen to flicker with a frequency greater than 2 Hz and lower than 55 Hz.

Section 1194.22 Web-based Internet information and applications – Detail

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(k) A text-only page, with equivalent information or functionality, shall be provided to make a web site comply with the provisions of this part, when compliance cannot be accomplished in any other way. The content of the text-only page shall be updated whenever the primary page changes.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 supports the Publish to HTML function only. All base content is created in the applications of the suite.
(l) When pages utilize scripting languages to display content, or to create interface elements, the information provided by the script shall be identified with functional text that can be read by Assistive Technology.	The information provided by the script is easily identifiable with functional text.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 uses Perfect Script and Microsoft Visual Basic for Applications as their scripting language.
(m) When a web page requires that an applet, plug-in or other application be present on the client system to interpret page content, the page must provide a link to a plug-in or applet that complies with §1194.21(a) through (l).	N/A	N/A
(n) When electronic forms are designed to be completed on-line, the form shall allow people using Assistive Technology to access the information, field elements, and functionality required for completion and submission of the form, including all directions and cues.	N/A	N/A
(o) A method shall be provided that permits users to skip repetitive navigation links.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 permits users to skip repetitive navigation links.	Users can skip repetitive navigation links using the Document Map.
(p) When a timed response is required, the user shall be alerted and given sufficient time to indicate more time is required.	Corel WordPerfect Office X6 does not have timed responses in the suite.

Note to 1194.22: The Board interprets paragraphs (a) through (k) of this section as consistent with the following priority 1 Checkpoints of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 1.0 (WCAG 1.0) (May 5 1999) published by the Web Accessibility Initiative of the World Wide Web Consortium: Paragraph (a) - 1.1, (b) - 1.4, © - 2.1, (d) - 6.1, (e) - 1.2, (f) - 9.1, (g) - 5.1, (h) - 5.2, (l) - 12.1, (j) - 7.1, (k) - 11.4.

Section 1194.23 Telecommunications Products – Detail

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(a) Telecommunications products or systems which provide a function allowing voice communication and which do not themselves provide a TTY functionality shall provide a standard non-acoustic connection point for TTYs. Microphones shall be capable of being turned on and off to allow the user to intermix speech with TTY use.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(b) Telecommunications products which include voice communication functionality shall support all commonly used cross-manufacturer non-proprietary standard TTY signal protocols.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
© Voice mail, auto-attendant, and interactive voice response telecommunications systems shall be usable by TTY users with their TTYs.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(d) Voice mail, messaging, auto-attendant, and interactive voice response telecommunications systems that require a response from a user within a time interval, shall give an alert when the time interval is about to run out, and shall provide sufficient time for the user to indicate more time is required.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(e) Where provided, caller identification and similar telecommunications functions shall also be available for users of TTYs, and for users who cannot see displays.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(f) For transmitted voice signals, telecommunications products shall provide a gain adjustable up to a minimum of 20 dB. For incremental volume control, at least one intermediate step of 12 dB of gain shall be provided.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.

Section 1194.23 Telecommunications Products – Detail

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(g) If the telecommunications product allows a user to adjust the receive volume, a function shall be provided to automatically reset the volume to the default level after every use.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(h) Where a telecommunications product delivers output by an audio transducer which is normally held up to the ear, a means for effective magnetic wireless coupling to hearing technologies shall be provided.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(l) Interference to hearing technologies (including hearing aids, cochlear implants, and assistive listening devices) shall be reduced to the lowest possible level that allows a user of hearing technologies to utilize the telecommunications product.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(j) Products that transmit or conduct information or communication, shall pass through cross-manufacturer, non-proprietary, industry-standard codes, translation protocols, formats or other information necessary to provide the information or communication in a usable format. Technologies which use encoding, signal compression, format transformation, or similar techniques shall not remove information needed for access or shall restore it upon delivery.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(k)(1) Products which have mechanically operated controls or keys shall comply with the following: Controls and Keys shall be tactilely discernible without activating the controls or keys.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.
(k)(2) Products which have mechanically operated controls or keys shall comply with the following: Controls and Keys shall be operable with one hand and shall not require tight grasping, pinching, twisting of the wrist. The force required to activate controls and keys shall be 5 lbs. (22.2N) maximum.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not considered a telecommunications product.

Section 1194.25 Self-Contained, Closed Products – Detail

VPAT™

Voluntary Product Accessibility Template®

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(a) Self contained products shall be usable by people with disabilities without requiring an end-user to attach Assistive Technology to the product. Personal headsets for private listening are not Assistive Technology.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not a selfcontained product.
(b) When a timed response is required, the user shall be alerted and given sufficient time to indicate more time is required.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not a selfcontained product.
© Where a product utilizes touchscreens or contact-sensitive controls, an input method shall be provided that complies with §1194.23 (k) (1) through (4).		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not a selfcontained product.
(d) When biometric forms of user identification or control are used, an alternative form of identification or activation, which does not require the user to possess particular biological characteristics, shall also be provided.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not a selfcontained product.
(e) When products provide auditory output, the audio signal shall be provided at a standard signal level through an industry standard connector that will allow for private listening. The product must provide the ability to interrupt, pause, and restart the audio at anytime.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not a selfcontained product.
(f) When products deliver voice output in a public area, incremental volume control shall be provided with output amplification up to a level of at least 65 dB. Where the ambient noise level of the environment is above 45 dB, a volume gain of at least 20 dB above the ambient level shall be user selectable. A function shall be provided to automatically reset the volume to the default level after every use.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not a selfcontained product.
(g) Color coding shall not be used as the only means of conveying information, indicating an action, prompting a response, or distinguishing a visual element.		Corel WordPerfect Office X6 is not a selfcontained product.
